Why am I in hospital?

You are being kept in hospital under Section 5(2) of the Mental Health Act.

This is because the person in charge of your treatment, or their deputy, thinks you need special care, in hospital, to make you feel better.

How long will I stay in hospital?

You will be kept in hospital for up to 72 hours so that you can be seen by a doctor who will decide if you need to be kept in hospital.

You must not leave during this time unless your doctor, or their deputy, says you can.

If you try to go you can be stopped

If you leave you can be brought back.

In your case the 72 hours will end on:

Date:

Time:

What happens next?

Another doctor will see you and may say that you need to stay in hospital for longer.

You may also be seen by an approved mental health professional who will help to decide whether you need to stay in hospital.

If you have not been told you have to stay in hospital at the end of the 72 hours you will be free to leave.

If you decide you wish to stay in hospital as a voluntary patient please speak to your nurse.

Will I be given treatment?

Your doctor and nurse will talk to you about any treatment they think you will need.

You can refuse any treatment you do not want.

Only in special circumstances can you be given treatment you do not agree to.

Can I appeal?

NO

Your letters

You can get letters while you are in hospital.

You can send letters to anyone except someone who has said they do not want to get letters from you.

How do I complain?

Speak to your nurse who will help you complain to the right person.

You can also write to the Care Quality Commission.

Your nurse will give you a leaflet explaining more.
