1 Purpose

This document sets out the procedure when an employee wishes to raise a grievance during their employment with the Trust.

2 Scope

2.1 Who this procedure applies to

---

- All Trust staff on a substantive contract, this excludes Bank Staff.
- For Doctors in Training who are raising a grievance in relation to an “Exception Report” please follow the separate flow chart at Appendix 4.

2.2 Who/What this procedure does not apply to

This procedure does not apply to concerns about bullying and harassment, the Trust’s Bullying and Harassment Reporting and Resolution Procedure must be followed.

This procedure does not apply to grievances about the disciplinary process. Such concerns should be raised with the Commissioning Manager and/or addressed at the Disciplinary Hearing or Appeal, and follow the Disciplinary Procedure. Staff in the Medical Staffing Directorate should refer to the Medical Remediation and Disciplinary Policy.

3 Related documents

This procedure describes what you need to do to implement the Grievance section of the Human Resources, During Employment Policy.

4 Principles

The Trust encourages informal discussions and resolutions of problems as soon as possible; the grievance procedure allows staff to raise concerns in relation to their employment. Where possible attempts at an informal resolution should be made. This does not stop an employee raising a formal grievance where there is no satisfactory resolution at the informal stage.

4.1 Confidentiality

Information about a grievance will be treated in confidence by everyone involved in the process. Grievances must not be made public by the Trust or by an employee. Any contact with the media must follow Trust processes.

4.2 Trust Values and Compact

All employees will be treated fairly whether or not a grievance is lodged. The Trust's Values and Staff Compact underpin all stages of the grievance process.

4.3 Support for staff

Raising a grievance can be an extremely stressful situation and the Trust will ensure that appropriate support mechanisms are made available to all parties.

Additional support is available from the Trust Employee Support Services, Dignity at Work Champions or your Staffside Representatives.

4.4 Equality and Diversity

All staff must attend Equality and Diversity training in line with the Trust's Staff Development Policy.

If you are concerned about risk, malpractice or wrongdoing you think is harming the service we deliver, please refer to the Trust's Whistleblowing \(Freedom to speak up: raising concerns for the NHS\) Policy or contact the Trust Freedom to Speak up Guardian: tevv.freedomtospeakup@nhs.net or one of the Trust's Dignity at Work Champions.

5 What is a grievance?

- Grievances typically cover the following areas:
  - pay and working conditions;
  - terms of employment and workplace rules;
  - disagreements

For concerns about harassment or bullying, the Grievance Procedure does not apply. The Trust's Bullying and Harassment Reporting and Resolution Procedure must be followed.

For Doctors in Training who are raising a grievance in relation to work schedules, please use the Exception Report form at Appendix 3 and follow the procedure detailed at Appendix 4

- Grievances/concerns should be raised within a reasonable timeframe (usually within 12 months), in order to allow resolution attempts to be made at the earliest opportunity. Consideration will be given to the acceptance of historical grievances on a case by case basis. Exploring whether there are any exceptional circumstances or difficulties faced in relation to the timing of the grievance being raised.
- If the grievance is against the Chief Executive of the Trust, it must be made directly to the Director of Human Resources or the Chair of the Trust. The Chair or nominated deputy will consider the matter and Director of HR or nominated deputy will act in an advisory capacity. If the grievance is against the Chair for the Trust, it must be made directly to the Senior Independent Director, details of which can be obtained from the Trust HR Department.

5.1 Raising Concerns Informally

In the first instance, you should speak to your line manager or the individual that you have concerns with, this can be done via a 1:1 resolution meeting as outlined in appendix 5 . If you do not feel it appropriate to raise your concerns with your immediate line manager or the individual you have concerns with, you should consider whether speaking to another manager/supervisor would be more appropriate.

Advice and guidance on informal resolution options can be provided by The Trust's Dignity at Work Champions, Human Resources Department, Staffside representatives and Employee Support Services.

- You and the manager/individual who you have raised your concerns with, must make every effort to resolve your concerns at the informal stage.
- You must be clear about the resolution/outcome you are seeking.
- You must also be clear if you feel your concerns to be bullying and harassment in nature, if so you must raise these concerns in line with the with the Trust Bullying and Harassment resolution procedure.

- Managers:
  - May need to seek advice in relation to your concerns, for example if your concerns are in relation to terms and conditions or pay related issues, advice may be sought from the Trust HR and Finance Department.
  - Must be clear about why they are unable to provide the resolution requested if they are unable to do so;
  - Do not have the right to award ex-gratia payments or any other non-contractual payment as resolution to a grievance.

- For potential conflict/disagreement issues (that are not felt to be bullying and harassment in nature), these may be resolved by one of the following options:
  - 1:1 resolution meeting – you would be encouraged to discuss your concerns directly with the individual as an attempt to resolve them.
  - Facilitated resolution meeting – this would be a meeting held between yourself and the individual, facilitated by your line manager or another manager if appropriate.
  - Formal mediation
  - Both parties would be required to be in agreement to enter into either a facilitated resolution meeting or formal mediation.

For additional guidance on the above please refer to appendix 5.

If informal resolution attempts have been made and you are unsatisfied with the outcome, you can raise a grievance formally.

5.2 Raising Concerns Formally (Formal Grievance)

All formal grievances must be lodged in writing, by completing appendix 1.

A formal grievance should clearly outline the cause of concern, what steps have been taken to address the grievance informally, who has been involved in any attempts to resolve the grievance informally and a clear indication of what you require as a resolution to the grievance.

If informal attempts have not been made, you may be asked if you wish to try to resolve the grievance informally prior to progressing to the formal process.

It is acknowledged that some staff may feel that they are unable to attempt an informal resolution. This does not prevent you raising a grievance formally in the first instance

- All Formal Grievances must be forwarded to the HR Department who will:
  - Write to you (the complainant) and acknowledge receipt of the Formal Grievance, ideally within 7 days.
  - Send a copy of the Grievance to the appropriate Manager (i.e. Head of Service/Department), with a copy provided to the relevant HR Representative.
  - Make arrangements for a Formal Grievance Hearing to take place – this should ideally be within 21 days of receipt of the formal grievance.

- The appropriate Manager (i.e Head of Service/Department) will:
  - Appoint a determining manager to chair the Grievance Hearing, who has the level of authority to agree a resolution.
  - If the grievance is specifically about an individual(s), they will be afforded the right to respond (respondent), the appropriate manager must provide the respondent(s) with a copy of the grievance (in a timely and sensitive manner). The respondents should also be advised that they will be invited to the Formal Grievance Hearing, affording them full opportunity to respond to the concerns and any evidence presented against them.
  - Must ensure that both the individual (complainant) and the respondent is provided with information on appropriate support available to them during the process.

- On behalf of the Determining Manager the HR Department will:
  - Invite the complainant to a Formal Grievance Hearing advising them of their right to be accompanied throughout the process by a companion.
  - Invite any respondents to the formal Grievance Hearing, advising them of their right to be accompanied throughout the process by a companion.
  - Invite any other individuals (participants) who may have been involved in any previous informal attempts to resolve the grievance or who may be required to provide relevant information i.e. Payroll, HR, IT, Nursing and Governance.

5.3 Formal Grievance Hearing Flowchart

The Formal Grievance Hearing panel will include:

- The Determining Manager
- A HR Representative
- A Professional Advisor (if required)

During the Formal Grievance Hearing:

- You (the complainant) will explain your grievance and how you think it could possibly be resolved
- Any individuals involved in any informal attempts to resolve the grievance may be required to participate in the grievance hearing to explain how they have tried to resolve the grievance; (participants)
- The Determining Manager may request other individuals (participants) to attend and provide relevant information e.g. payroll, HR, IT, Nursing and Governance;
- In an attempt to resolve the grievance, the respondent(s) will be called to the Formal Grievance Hearing to provide a response to the written concerns. These will have been shared with them prior to the hearing.
- Full Format of the Formal Grievance Hearing is at Appendix 2

Potential Outcomes of the Formal Grievance Hearing

Decision Made - Based on the information presented, the Determining Manager may be in a position to come to a decision. Attempts will be made to provide you with this the same day as the Formal Grievance Hearing. If this is not possible then you will be notified of the decision within 7 days.

Adjourn – Before making a decision the Determining Manager may need more information and therefore suspend the Formal Grievance Hearing so information can be obtained.

The Determining Manager will:

- Adjourn the Formal Grievance Hearing
- Identify who will gather the additional information
- Identify likely timescales and agree them with the individual appointed to gather the information (this should be no longer than 6 weeks)
- All documentation to be used at the reconvened Formal Grievance Hearing must be received by the complainant at least 7 days before the Reconvened Grievance Hearing.

Decision Made - Based on all of the information presented during the course of the original and reconvened Formal Grievance Hearing a decision will be made. Attempts will be made to provide you with this the same day as the reconvened Formal Grievance Hearing, if this is not possible then you will be notified of the decision within 7 days.

If you are satisfied with the outcome of the Formal Grievance Hearing – no further action is required.

If you are unsatisfied with the outcome of the Formal Grievance Hearing – You have the right to raise an appeal, See Section 5.6

On the conclusion of the Formal Grievance Hearing, the complainant will receive feedback from the Determining Manager.

7 Definitions

Term	Definition
The “right to be accompanied”	Workers have a statutory right to be accompanied by a companion at a grievance meeting which deals with a complaint about a duty owed by the employer to the worker. So this would apply where the complaint is, for example, that the employer is not honouring the worker's contract, or is in breach of legislation
Employee’s Companion:	“The Chosen Companion may be a fellow worker, a trade union representative, or an official employed by a trade union. A trade union representative who is not an employed official must have been certified by their union as being competent to accompany a worker” (ACAS Code of Practice). A fellow worker is an employee of the Trust. The companion may address the hearing in order to present the employee’s case, question witnesses, sum up the employee’s case and respond on behalf of the employee to any view expressed at the hearing. The companion may not answer questions on behalf of the employee
Grievance	Grievances typically cover the following areas <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ pay and working conditions;</li> <li>○ terms of employment and workplace rules;</li> <li>○ disagreements</li> </ul>
The Complainant	The individual who has raised the Grievance.
The “Respondent(s)”	Individuals who have been identified specially by the complainant, i.e. who the grievance is against.
Participants	Individuals who may be required to attend either the Formal Grievance Hearing or Appeal Hearing who have either been involved in any informal attempt to resolve the grievance or who may be required to provide any relevant information.

Collective Grievance	May be raised when more than one employee has exactly the same grievance. A collective grievance is dealt with in the same way as an individual grievance, following the same process. A nominated spokesperson and Trade Union Representative are to act on behalf of the collective group of employees during the grievance process i.e. when dealing with communications related to the grievance or attending a grievance hearing.
Disputes	A grievance that is raised by a number of Trade Unions or Professional Organisations against the Trust.
Mediation	“A way of sorting out disagreements or disputes when a neutral third person works with those in the disagreement or dispute to help them reach an agreement that will resolve their problems” (ACAS).

Appendix 4

FOR JUNIOR DOCTORS IN RELATION TO 'EXCEPTION REPORTS' ONLY

'Exception Reporting' – where a doctor in training feels their workload or pattern of working is deviating significantly or routinely from their intended work schedule or they cannot access training as specified in their work schedule.

The following process should be followed for doctors in training only in relation to 'Exception Reporting'. Any grievances other than 'Exception Reporting' should be dealt with using the Trust's general grievance procedure at the front of this document.

Level 1 Process:

This is the informal stage where you will have discussed your issues or concerns detailed in your 'Exception Reports' with your Clinical Supervisor and only if you are dissatisfied with the outcome of that discussion would you proceed to Level 2 below (which is the formal Grievance process).

Level 2 Process:

- If doctor dissatisfied with outcome from Level 1 process, the doctor can request a Level 2 work review within 14 days of receiving notification of the outcome.
- A written request (complete appendix 1a of the Trust Grievance procedure), detailing the areas of your disagreement to the work schedule outcome and details of the outcome you are seeking. This should then be forwarded to the Medical Staffing Manager and copying in your Clinical Supervisor.
- A Level 2 review discussion should take place, no later than 21 days after receipt of the doctor's formal written request.
- A Level 2 review panel will be arranged and will consist of the following members;
  - Clinical Supervisor (for reference purposes only)
  - Doctor requesting review
  - Medical Education Manager or Medical Staffing Manager
  - Associate DME
  - Academic Supervisor (only doctors on integrated academic training pathway)
- Panel will consider the outcome from the Level 1 conversation and the outcome will be one of the following;
  - The Level 1 outcome upheld
  - Compensation of time off in lieu is required
  - No change to the work schedule is required
  - Prospective documented changes are made to the work schedule
  - Organisational changes such as review of the timings of ward rounds, handovers and clinics are needed.
- The panel will communicate their decision in writing.

If doctor is dissatisfied with the outcome from the Level 2 meeting, they may request a 'Final Stage Work Review' within 14 days of receiving notification of the decision.

Final Stage: (For LET employed doctors they need to follow their own Grievance Procedure at this point).

- The doctor must set out the areas of disagreement about the work schedule and detail the outcome they are seeking.
- The final stage for a work review is a 'Formal Hearing' under the Grievance procedure.
- The final stage review hearing will be arranged and will consist of the following members;
  - Clinical Supervisor (for reference purposes only)
  - Doctor requesting review
  - Associate Director of Medical Development
  - Director of Medical Education (if a training issue) or Guardian (if working hours issue) or both if applicable.
  - Academic Supervisor (only doctors on integrated academic training pathway)
- Panel will consider the outcome from the Level 2 meeting and the outcome will be one of the following;
  - The Level 2 outcome upheld
  - Compensation of time off in lieu is required
  - No change to the work schedule is required
  - Prospective documented changes are made to the work schedule
  - Organisational changes such as review of the timings of ward rounds, handovers and clinics are needed.
- The panel will communicate their decision in writing.
- The decision of the panel will be final.

Informal Resolution Options

1:1 Resolution Meeting

Some people are not aware that their behaviour is unwelcome or the impact this may be having on you and an informal discussion can lead to a greater understanding and an agreement that the behaviour will cease.

If you feel able to raise your issues/concerns with the employee concerned directly in a confidential setting face-to face then a 1:1 meeting would be an appropriate way forward in an attempt at an informal local resolution.

Facilitated Informal Conversation

If you do not feel comfortable addressing the concerns directly with the individual concerned or would prefer the issues/concerns to be addressed via a facilitated informal conversation, you will be supported to do this. Ideally the conversation should be facilitated by your line manager/supervisor.

The following is a guide to use when conducting an informal facilitated conversation:

- Introductions given / reasons for the meeting explained. Ground rules for the way the meeting will be conducted will be agreed which may include:-
  - treating each other with respect,
  - actively listening to each other,
  - a commitment by both parties to proactively work together to identify and agree how the situation may be resolved.
  - the focus being on identifying a solution to resolve the problem and restore the relationship.
- Gain an understanding of what has happened from the complainant asking for clear, specific examples such as dates, what was said/done, how it made them feel. Explore what it is they have found to be unacceptable.
- A focus on how the actions have made the complainant feel should be established.
- The subject of the complaint should be given the opportunity to respond. This may help them to understand the effects of his/her behaviour with the agreement to change it, as the alleged perpetrator may not know that their behaviour is unwelcome or upsetting.
- Alternative appropriate behaviours should be agreed.
- Both parties should actively listen and attempt to understand how their behaviour may have impacted on how the other person felt.
- It is hoped that an agreement can be reached on how the matter may be resolved to the satisfaction of the complainant. This may include specific actions/behavioural changes agreed by both parties by the end of the meeting.

- From this informal discussion it should be possible for the employee to assess if they feel the subject of the complaint has understood the effect their behaviour has had and whether they are prepared to change this.
- The facilitator should take responsibility for arranging an informal review meeting to assess how things are progressing and to ensure the concerns remain resolved.

Formal Mediation

It is advised that formal mediation is tried before resorting to a formal process. Mediation is a confidential and voluntary process which brings together employees who are experiencing problems in a work relationship. Mediation is offered as a service by employee volunteers who are accredited trained mediators.

If you want to explore the option of formal mediation in more detail please contact Michelle Brown Head of Organisational OD on 01642 451676 michellebrown1@nhs.net.
