

Register of Gifts and Hospitality 2021/22

Annex 2

Date Declared	Employee	Role	Provider	Interest Description (Abbreviated)	Value £'s	Declined	Donated	Donated To
22/03/22	Andrew Elmslie	Consultant Psychiatrist	Patient	1 bottle 750ml Bollinger Special Cuvee Champagne	46	Yes	No
19/05/21	Christel Behrens	Psychology Assistant	Family of Patient	A Card with the inscription "Just a small token of thanks and appreciation for your continued support over the past 14 weeks. It has been invaluable and helped me enormously through a very difficult time. Kind regards, Anne Pilkington", as well as a 10£ Marks and Spencer Gift Card .	10	No	No
28/05/21	Claire Groom	High Intensity Therapist	Patient	A bunch of flowers and a card.	5	No	No
21/12/21	Claire Hyslop	Psychologist	Patient	Flowers	5	No	No
01/12/21	Donna Stringer	High Intensity Therapist	Patient	Box of chocolates and a mug	5	No	No
25/02/22	Elaine Brown	Highly Specialist Applied Psychologist	Patient	Homemade knitted me a cardigan and socks to say thanks you for the support. Gift value is estimated at £10 for cost of the wool.	10	No	No
24/12/21	Elaine Brown	Highly Specialist Applied Psychologist	Patient	Bottle of M&S prosecco	10	No	No
20/12/21	Elaine Brown	Highly Specialist Applied Psychologist	Patient	Bottle of white wine and box of chocolates	8	No	No
20/12/21	Elaine Brown	Highly Specialist Applied Psychologist	Patient	4 different gluten free packets of biscuit, teabags, 4 hot chocolate sachets, and a mug. This was to say thank you on completion of her psychological therapy.	15	No	No
21/12/21	Everlyn Faith Rodriguez	Community Mental Health Nurse	Patient	Multistone bracelet	20	No	No
14/09/21	Hannah Henley	Associate Practitioner (Community)	Patient	Around £50 worth of items from The Disney Store, including a towel, water bottle, measuring jug and mug	50	No	Yes	Mind
05/04/21	Helen Spencer	Specialty Doctor	Patient	Second hand Fish tank	25	No	No
20/01/22	Holly Lawrence	Specialist Physiotherapist	Patient	The above patient offered me a money gift for Christmas. I politely declined but the patient was insistent that I took it. I put it on the counter in her house before I left. When I returned to the patient after Christmas, both the patient and her son insisted that I took the money as a late Christmas gift.	20	No	No
20/12/21	Jacqueline Scotting	Community Psychiatric Nurse	Family of Patient	Hamper of perishable food/drink items	45	No	No
20/12/21	Jacqueline Scotting	Community Psychiatric Nurse	Patient	Small selection of perishable food/drink items	15	No	No
04/02/22	John Whaley	Consultant Psychiatrist	Patient	Bottle of sparkling wine & box of Florentines	10	No	No
02/12/21	Mark Lovell	Consultant Psychiatrist	University	Amazon thankyou voucher for taking part in research	10	No	No
20/03/22	Mehwish Barbir	Consultant Psychiatrist	Patient	Tin of biscuits	5	No	No
07/12/21	Oliver Fenton	Consultant	Patient	Patient appeared to have been made aware by other staff that reason for my recent absence was for paternity leave. At end of appointment patient gave me a gift bag containing "plush toy comforter 0months +". Gift accepted and advised patient that it was a kind gesture but did not need to do this.	5	No	No
25/01/22	Sally Robinson	Clinical Psychologist	Patient	Bag of three tubes of toiletries (Aloe cucumber 80ml; Champeys glitter pick me up shower gel and body lotion 50ml each)	10	No	No
06/04/22	Sarah Wilcock	Advanced Nurse Practitioner	Patient	Bought me a small box of Hero's and thank you card	5	No	Yes	Donated gift the surgery staff team